MARINEB'S CHURCH .- Owing to the indispositien of the pastor, there will be no service in the Mariner's Church to-morrow.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS .- Governor Scott has appointed the following magistrates: Wm. M. Melen, for Charleston; W. D. H'll, Lexington; Alfred Boston and William Wimms, Darlington; Wesley K. Streeter, Chesterfield.

THE OPERA. -- We cannot well speak too highly of the style in which "The Magic Flute" was presented at the theatre last night. It was the triumph of the week, so far, and delighted the crowded house that heard it. The opera season will close to night with Il Trovatore.

"BOIL IT DOWN."-We commend to our readers generally, and especially to those who write communications intensed for publication in THE NEWS, the sermon in varse which we print in our poet's corner this morning. In this particular, it has bee the special sim of this newspaper to practice what it

THE HANLONS .- The Hanlon Brothers, with their large and varied troups and their novel velocipedes, will perform in Hibernian Hall next week commencing on Monday night. They have one of the best shows of the age, and having already established a splendid reputation in this city as well as in all other places where they have exhibited, they will doubtless draw full houses.

CLUBS AND STARS .- The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor yesterday : William Johnson, white, helplessly tight. Fined five dollars.

Richard Heyward, colored, caught stealing wood from Union wharf. Discharged.

William Orchet, Company B., eight Infantry, horizontally drunk in Meeting-street. Fined five dollars. William Rich, white, sam offence as above, in Church-street. Fined five dollars.

Thomas Smith, white, tight as bricks in Mar ket-street. Fined five dollars. Two colored men found selling turkeys on the street without a license. Dis harged.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE CHRESTOMATH C SOCI-ETY.—The annual commencement of this society of the Charleston College last evening was largely attended, especially by the ladies. The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. C. P. Gadsden, after which the Rev. E. C. Edgerton, a graduate of the ollege, delivered a chaste and logical oration on the "Moral Element in Education," the leading principle of which was the force and beauty of ruth. Diplomas were then conferred on Messrs.

Martin, Miller, Boylston, Mazyck, Lesesne and Alston, by President Webb. Mr. J. A. Martin pronounced a neat and exceedingly well written cration on "Ambition," arguing in favor of the moral sid The exercises were interspersed with choice musi Madditional charm to the eventury

DEAR ORTHERS—I received your nete requesting in a to repeat my discourse on the line and character of the great. Jawish Prophet, Daniel, delivered some four or six weeks ago, because the weather and streets at that time old not permit the congregation to come out july; and as many have since desired to hear it, amongst whom were very respectable prans of the Jowish persuasion. I will take pleasure in trying to meet your wishes on to morrow afternoun, at half-past three o'clook. Of course, my series of discourses will be discontinued only for that evening, on the "Evidences of the Bible Revelation," to be resumed on unday af crinoons, following, till they close. You sak for the publication of this notice. I have no objection, and join in the invitation to Jowish triends.

THE MAYORALTY-MORE DEVELOPMENTS Yesterday Dr. M. H. Collins formally demanded of Alderman Olney his seat in Council, as an Alderman of Ward No. 4, Alderman Olney replying verbally that he did not recognize the demand. Dr. Collins sued out a warrant of arrest through Magistrate Mishaw, and had him arrested on the street by officer. Phillipi. He was carried to the magistrate's office. Fire-proof Building, where General Conner, his. counsel, appeared to tender as surottes John 8. Riggs, Esq., and Z. B. Oakes, E-q. The committing magistrate being non est, the matter was laid before Magistrate Dingle, who declared the writ irregular. and Mr. Olney was released. Reveral warrants were sued out to arrest other Aldermen, but, up to a late hour last night, the writs had not been served. There was an informal gathering of the Alderman on the Pillsburry ticket at the residence of Mr. Pillsbury last night, and the state of affairs talked over. and finally an adjournment took place until to-day, when Mr. Corbin is expected, who is to direct further movements. Between to-day and Monday there will be other steps taken in the premises looking to a speedy culmination of the question at issue.

Plantation Bitters.

WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE. Light o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dreary this little room does seem, and I am so lone some ! Ten o'clock. How I wish he would come It is so lonely here with the children asleep! Once he loved to stay with me, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My heart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, perhaps. May be my face is not as fair as once, but my heart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC. Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Plantaion Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

ONE O'CLOCK. What charms can be find in that foul-scente !

room, by that dusty table, cutting and dealing those dusty cards, filling himself with poison, tain ing his breath, raining his mind, undermining his constitu tion, planting seeds of disease, squindering his mency, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement. Is th's happiness? is this life? Is this our mission? Oh! I am so tired, do co re home.

This deltelous cordial and fine tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great health giver and retorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on it. Be wise in time. Sold by all druggists,

PLANTATION BITTERS.

"No darling, I have labored enough to-day. Why should I fice from home, from happiness, from thee? Life is full short to love-too short to squander. I love the photograph of my leart too well. No darling, my heart is here; here let me keep it company."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthening and invigorating, and are Ethausted Nature's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and appetizer, they cannot be excelled.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a happy man or woman, and the affairs of another trouble hem but a little. It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sisters thus salutes the minister. It cannot effect you when a man you know calls on a girl you don't know. or one you do. What if there is kissing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the church, or even ever the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

A WINE GLASS FULL

Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before each meal, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence. For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

"I WENT TO THE LAND OF STEADY HABITS." I wanted to hand several "bricks" down to posterity, and was told by father that with a New England girl tor a wife, I could raise more children, grow more onions, skin more cels, sing more psalms, know more of what was going on in the neighborhood, hear more scandal, sleep less nights, have more relatives, eat more beans, love myself and hate others more, and get more out of a dollar, than any other sort of woman in this happy country so-called.

No. 159 West First-street, New York, says he has three children. The first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them; but she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last ten years, and has a child now 18 months old, which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty and well. Plantation Bitters is invaluable to mothers.

VALTER, MY BOY, Here comes a man who was once rich. He had friends, and money, and a loving family, and position, and influence, and self-respect, and integrity, and a future of usefulness before him. But, my boy, he don't look like it now. He was elected to an important office. He forgot the lessons his good mother taught him, and was asked by designing politicians to sell his vote to a party of swindlers; h sould not for the life of him give articulation to that little word, and so he fell.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE COMPLAINT. From mother and father, that the son or daughter is not well; that they have no appetite; that they feel languid; that the head aches all the time; that they are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life nor energy lets. And the questions are often saked, What shall I do for them? What shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bitters moderately, three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

AND HERE VALTER, IS A YOUNG MAN, Just like you and us, my boy. He has wit, sense, education, intelligence, friends, ambition, and is loved. He has a knowledge of the world, acquired by mixing with its people. He has ambition and the same field in which to win honor, fame and disthe same field in which to win honor, fame and distinction, as had Franklin, Fulton, Morse, and a host of others. He is naturally an art, but, Valter, my boy, as he meets us do you see the excess of moisture in his eye, the little puffy ridge under it the gradual turning of the beautiful corners of the mouth, his molber so loved to kiss. These, my boy, tell a sad tale of carly shipwreek, of disease, of premature death, of neglected and squandered gifts.

By virtue of the decretal order of his Honor, Judge James L. '17, m de in the above case, I will sell to the highest bidder at Gree: ville Courthous', on MONDAY, the 'th of April next.

The PREMISES described in the pleadings, viz: All that PIECE, PARCEL AND TRACT OF LAND, situated in the County of Greenville. seven miles from the Couthouse and six from the Greenville Bailroad Depot lying on both sides of Reedy River, containing four hundred and nine-y-nine acres, more or less, in a high state of cultivation. Upon the place is located the well known Cotton and Wood Factory of the defenda is. The Cotton Factory is in full operation, with some nine hundred and fifty spindles and twent four looms; the Wood Factory with one hundred and twenty mule spindles, is also in good order and successful operation. On the premises are a good Flouring, Grist and Saw Mills, with blacksmith shop—two comiortable dwelling houses and several small framed houses for the operatives, with a nice brick church. The water lower at all seasons is sufficient to drive three times the amount of machinery now in operation. The country is remarkably healthy, with a climate unsurpassed in the United States, with a sober, industrious and energetic population. Wooded lands adjacent, well timbered, can be purchased at reasonable prices. This is the best opportunity for an investment to capitalists that has been offered in the up-country since the war.

Terms each. Furchaser to pay for papers and stamps.
